

Internship with Infrastructure and Debt Advisory Group in PwC St. Petersburg

We are happy to announce the opening of Internship with Infrastructure and Debt Advisory (I&D) Group in PwC St. Petersburg for those who are interested in areas of financial modeling, big data/data analytics, project financing, Public-Private Partnerships and marketing research.

Services provided by department:

- Complex financial modelling of developed financing structures;
- Traffic modelling of cargo flows through sea and river ports, railways, air communication;
- Structuring of financing solutions for corporates and projects on a non-recourse basis;
- Advising public sector clients on the procurement of projects using PPP schemes and bidders interested to participate or invest;
- Analysis, development and preparation of socio-economic / feasibility studies and business plans for projects in the private and public sector;
- Presentation of financing proposals to investors (equity and debt) and guarantors; negotiation of terms;
- Managing the finance raising process.

Successful Candidate Profile:

- Undergraduates in Economics, Finance, Mathematics, Sciences or Engineering (additional/second education related to corporate finance/valuation is an advantage);
- Experience/knowledge in predictive analytics, statistical analysis solutions development and data mining;
- Proficiency in VBA/R/Java/Python or other programming languages is an advantage;
- Comprehensive theoretical and working knowledge of corporate finance / valuation theory, knowledge of general accounting principles is an advantage;
- Strong research and analytical skills;
- Ability to work full time;
- English – advanced/upper-intermediate (both oral and written);
- Practical experience in report writing and the preparation of electronic presentations using MS Applications is a plus;
- Practical knowledge of MS Excel and the ability to structure and build financial models / business plans is a plus;
- Financial internship experience is a plus.

Soft skills:

- Willingness to dive deep into the unstructured material to find an answer to a yet unknown question;
- Ability to clearly communicate findings orally, in written and visually and come up with suggestions and advices;
- Be able to work in fast-paced environment;
- Ability to meet deadlines;
- Attention to details;
- Excellent communication skills.

- Contact Person: elena.mozhaikova@ru.pwc.com